Maier Markey & Justic LLP to Sponsor Nonprofit Westchester Corporate Partner to Support Leading Nonprofit Member Organization

White Plains, New York February 12, 2020 - Nonprofit Westchester has announced that Maier Markey & Justic LLP has signed on to become a silver sponsor, as the latest of a growing group of area companies who have committed to supporting the County's sole membership organization dedicated to advancing the interests of the nonprofit sector.

Maier Markey & Justic LLP (MM&J), based in White Plains, NY, is a full-service CPA firm specializing in providing outsourced bookkeeping, accounting, Controller and CFO level leadership services. MM&J transitions clients to a future oriented approach through clarifying their financial results, initiating action plans, measuring results and adjusting to each new set of circumstances. MM&J provides outsourced services to not-for-profit organizations throughout Westchester, Rockland, Fairfield and Bronx counties.

"We are excited to be a new sponsor for Nonprofit Westchester" said MM&J Managing Partner Anthony Justic. "We have been helping nonprofits grow their impact through improved financial results which in turn goes to grow and support mission. Our goal is to help the nonprofit community thrive and better support their constituents. As such we align perfectly with the objectives of Nonprofit Westchester".

"We appreciate Maier Markey & Justic's commitment to supporting our growth, in helping us to further build successful strategies to serve our communities throughout the county, " said Jan Fisher, Executive Director, Nonprofit Westchester. "It is gratifying to see companies like Maier Markey & Justic appreciate the benefits of working together to advance opportunities for area residents to live, work, learn, and thrive here in Westchester."
