Nonprofit Westchester to Launch Nonprofit Financial Management Bootcamp in Westchester through the Support of Hudson Valley Credit Union

Westchester County, New York, July 27, 2021- Nonprofit Westchester (NPW) is pleased to announce the launch of the Nonprofit Financial Management Bootcamp through the support of Hudson Valley Credit Union. This in-depth, eight-part series will begin on September 17th and support nonprofits to move forward after being particularly hard-hit by the pandemic, to improve their operations, and fulfill their missions and realize positive social impact.

Series instructor Tonia Papke of MDI Consulting has worked with hundreds of businesses and non-profit organizations for over thirty years to organize financial and operational divisions and create and install accounting systems and procedures that enable rapid growth. She holds an MBA from Columbia Business School and is a member of the Leadership Council of the Support Center for Nonprofit Management.

"As Westchester's only business membership organization solely dedicated to addressing the needs of the county's nonprofit sector, NPW knew there would be a positive response to the bootcamp. However, we did not expect for the series to reach the maximum participation limit in under three weeks," stated Jan Fisher, executive director of Nonprofit Westchester. "We are grateful for our partnership with Hudson Valley Credit Union that will allow NPW to offer programming to build the capacity of diverse and already high-functioning nonprofit organizations in Westchester."

"We were so excited to see the enthusiastic response to this important training series," said Lisa Morris, Assistant Vice President at Hudson Valley Credit Union. "The time attendees spend in these sessions will yield great value professionally and personally, and HVCU is pleased to support NPW's strong, meaningful programming."
